

TF Global Markets Japan Limited.

Company Description

TF Global Markets Group has 12 offices around the world, including London, Dubai, and Chicago, and provides a trading platform for financial instruments under the brand name "ThinkMarkets".

As a subsidiary of the group, TF Global Markets holds a license from the Japanese Financial Services Agency and launched FX services (Type 1 Financial Instruments Business) for the Japanese market in 2022.

We feature the industry's first ever innovative "Subscription FX" service, and are looking to further expand our business in Japan in the future.
