

Newport Ltd.

Company Description

With People For People

At Newport, we believe in responsibility and authenticity. Our role as your sales and marketing partner in Japan is more than simply providing similar services offered by others. With a mission to be a truly sustainable organization, we're committed to innovative thinking and win-win relationships.

Newport is a consumer products and services company with an aim to reach all Japanese households, but we like thinking outside the box.

With a mission to be a truly sustainable organization, we're committed to putting forth our best efforts and talent to help our business partners reach their strategic and financial goals.
