

Wilhelmsen Ships Service Co., Ltd.

Company Description

Wilhelmsen is a global maritime industry group, and leaders within our industry. With the world's largest maritime network on call 24/7, our people can deliver products and services on the ground practically anywhere you have ships, or maritime related industries. We make the maritime industry spin.

We believe that enabling global trade and connectivity creates a better world, makes cultures interact, and forms the basis for a more sustainable future. We believe that the oceans and the maritime industry will continue to be a source of prosperity, global collaboration and great opportunities. We also believe that sustainable trade can not be seen as a passing trend, but an absolute and critical necessity.

We are Wilhelmsen. Because of our heritage and our ambitions for the future, we aspire to be the leading enablers of sustainable global trade.
