

Koa Glass Co., Ltd.

Company Description

For over 80 years, the brand of glass containers has been a brand of trust and tradition that has been dedicated to quality.

Koa Glass celebrated the 80th anniversary as a manufacturer of glass containers that produces and sells a variety of glass containers, including cosmetic containers as its main products.

In order to make full use of glass as a material for glass containers, Koa Glass continues to explore new ideas and to produce the highest quality products.

Glass is such an eco-friendly material that it has become an essential material for us more than ever before.

We have received many orders from major and famous cosmetics manufacturers such as Chanel, Christian Dior, and Shiseido. Currently, about 80% of the cosmetic bottles lined up in department stores are our products. We are able to respond to various customer requests, such as combining three types of colors for creating a sense of luxury, and our technical capabilities are highly evaluated.
