

Fujipacific Music Inc.

Company Description

Fujipacific Music Inc. is part of Fujisankei Communications Group, Japan's largest media-conglomerate.

With over 55 years of history, Fujipacific continues to be one of the top music publishers in the nation.

Copyright Administration

With a group of experienced and dedicated staff members, we represent over 70,000 domestic copyrights. We also act as sub-publisher for over 500 overseas publishers.

Our offices in Hong Kong and Korea have proved industry professionals that Fujipacific can offer top-notch publishing services in various SE Asian territories.

Licensing

Our licensing department actively seeks out ways to increase revenues, such as synch licenses for films, TV commercials, video games and any other possible media.

Creative Services

Fujipacific's creative services group can provide multiple ways to enhance activities for your songs and writers-including song pitching to local artists, master placements, securing cover recordings, coordinating cowrite sessions and writer/artist developments.
