

TACK & TMI JAPAN Co., LTD.

Company Description

We have provided training service in Japan for more than thirty years. And in 2019, we established TACK & TMI Japan Co., LTD. in order to further provide services to best suit to Japanese market business needs, with our world's highest quality training programs and services.

We strongly focus that all participants will gain improvement and growth. And we will surely produce that result.

At TACK & TMI Japan, we design irresistible learning experiences that deliver results through face-to-face or blended learning.

We do this by:

Listening to understand your needs

Advising you on developing learning and development solutions that meet those needs
Designing and delivering pre-, during and post-learning and development solutions that are practical and will stick.

The powerful Value Proposition of the two global renowned brands matched with our 30 years of local experience in the training industry is what makes a difference to our clients, who to our delight, continue to come back to us!
