Introduction of Operations

We at the operations department take care of all necessary stages to build and deliver our trucks and buses.

This starts and ends with the department "Supply Chain Management" which ensures that every part from our global supplier network is delivered within the right quantity quality and time.

This guarantees that the finished truck or bus is shipped to our customers in perfect condition.

Our top quality products are produced by the highly qualified workers in our production department who take care of the engine transmission and vehicle assembly and the subsequent quality check.
Our state of the art work environment is build and maintained by the Technical Services Operations Department to make our plant the benchmark factory in the commercial vehicle industry The Factory of the Future!
The required robots and automated systems are researched and implemented by our manufacturing engineering team. Lastly TOS (Truck Operating System) guarantees continuous improvement and efficiency increase in all areas we serve.
