Job Description

This FP&A Manager role offers the opportunity to lead financial planning and analysis for a high-growth consumer health business in Japan, managing financial reporting for a $500 million operation. The position is ideal for a finance professional seeking leadership responsibilities in a dynamic, innovative environment with strong career growth potential.

Client Details

This global leader in the consumer health industry is headquartered in the United States and boasts a portfolio of iconic brands known and trusted worldwide. With billions in annual revenue and a strong presence in Japan, the company employs hundreds of professionals committed to innovation and excellence in delivering high-quality products. This opportunity offers the chance to join a dynamic team in a company that is at the forefront of shaping the future of health and wellness.

Description

- Financial Planning & Analysis: Lead the preparation and execution of the company's financial plans, including budgets, forecasts, and long-term strategies. Ensure alignment with overall business objectives and provide insights that drive decision-making at the senior management level.
- Management Reporting: Oversee the preparation of comprehensive financial reports, including P&L, balance sheets, and cash flow statements. Present these reports to top executives, highlighting key trends, risks, and opportunities.

- Performance Monitoring: Continuously monitor financial performance against plans and forecasts, identifying variances and underlying causes. Work closely with business unit leaders to recommend and implement corrective actions where necessary.
- Change Management: Play a pivotal role in guiding the financial team through organizational changes, particularly in adapting to new structures and processes following the company's recent strategic reorganization.
- Compliance & Risk Management: Ensure that all financial activities comply with regulatory requirements and internal policies. Drive initiatives that promote a culture of compliance and accountability across the finance function.

Job Offer

- Opportunity to work in a large and stable listed company.
- Good career development
- An atmosphere where you can propose ideas
- Internal transfer opportunities for both local and overseas
- Excellent employee benefits, including employer pension scheme.
- Hybrid work, 1-2 days in office/week

Page Group Japan is acting as an Employment Agency in relation to this vacancy.

Required Skills

- Experience in financial planning and analysis, with a proven track record of managing complex financial processes.
 - Analytical skills and the ability to translate data into actionable insights for business leaders.
 - Good communication skills in both Japanese and English, capable of presenting complex financial information clearly and concisely to senior stakeholders.
 - Ability to thrive in a changing environment, managing multiple priorities while maintaining a high level of accuracy and attention to detail.
 - Experience with financial systems such as SAP and reporting tools like Tableau or BI dashboards is desirable.
