Job Description

In this senior audit role, you'll play a key part in ensuring the company's governance, risk management and internal controls are effective. This role is not just about conducting audits but also about improving the company's risk culture and helping management develop smarter, more effective controls.

Client Details

Imagine being part of an innovative and growing insurance company that operates across Asia, with a strong presence in Japan. Here's what makes this company stand out:

1. Diverse Product Range:

- The company offers a wide variety of insurance products, including life, health, and travel insurance, as well as investment-linked policies that combine protection with wealth-building opportunities.

2. Digital-First Approach:

- Emphasizing simplicity and accessibility, this company utilizes online platforms and mobile apps to make purchasing, managing, and claiming on insurance policies easy and convenient for customers.

3. Expanding Market Presence:

- Known for its innovative products, this company is steadily growing in Japan, offering customer-friendly options that differentiate it from more traditional insurers in the market.

4. Customer-Centric Focus:

- The company prioritizes a hassle-free customer experience, with clear policy terms and a quick, easy claims process that puts customers first.

5. Corporate Culture:

- The company is driven by a philosophy centered around "celebrating living," aiming to shift the perception of insurance from just a safety net to something that enhances life experiences.

6. Social Responsibility:

- With a strong commitment to community support, the company engages in initiatives focused on health, education, and overall community well-being.

7. Innovation and Growth:

- The company is at the forefront of the industry, investing in InsurTech to offer new and exciting opportunities for growth and development.

If you're seeking a role where you can make a real difference and be part of a forward-thinking company, this could be the ideal opportunity for you.

Description

- Audit Leadership: You'll lead and execute audit projects from start to finish, ensuring they are completed on time and to a high standard. This involves:
 - Defining the goals, scope, and timeline of each audit.
 - Working closely with management to understand processes and controls.
 - Identifying and assessing key risks and controls.
 - Evaluating how well these controls work and suggesting improvements.
 - Documenting findings and discussing them with management to agree on solutions.
 - Leading meetings with senior management to review audit progress and findings.
- Follow-Up: After an audit, you'll work with management to ensure that any recommended actions are implemented effectively and on time.
- Strategic Planning: You'll assist in creating a risk-based audit plan for the next three years, regularly reviewing it to make sure it aligns with the company's strategy and addresses key risks.
- Reporting: You'll help prepare reports on audit progress and insights for the Audit and Supervisory Committee, providing valuable assurance and recommendations.
