Job Description

Selling points

- Join a big player in a key, 'future-proof' industry - as the world becomes more reliant on technology, this company's products will continue to be in demand.
- Influence the global operations, as you'll be a top-level stakeholder in a head office environment - you'll have a lot of exposure to the C-suite of a truly multinational organization.
- Use your bilingual skills on a daily basis, as you'll be working with people in Japan, Europe, and North America.
- This company is in a transformation mindset - they are unifying as a single entity, rather than being historically siloed geographically, allowing them to be even more competitive globally.

Company Profile

- An international semiconductor manufacturer that is in the early stages of a major business transformation and globalization journey, is looking for someone to be the most senior representative of IT to their global financial divisions.

The Role

- You'll be working with senior executives such as the Global CFO and the Global IT leadership to ensure that the Finance business unit and IT strategy are closely aligned; you will be ensuring that Finance have all the tools and support to do their job effectively. Essentially, you'll be defining and setting a technical roadmap for the global Finance department - you'll be delivering projects focusing on the platforms and systems used and resolving any major issues that arise.
- To achieve this, you'll initially be leading a team of 10 direct reports and will be managing people both in Japan and internationally, with key team members in North America and Europe - so you'll be using your bilingual Japanese & English skills on a daily basis.

Your Skills

- Business Japanese and English skills are required for this role.
- An internationally minded IT leader, ideally with plenty of knowledge of enterprise finance applications and processes.
- Someone with experience of developing a team and leading high value projects would be ideal for this role.
- Any exposure to the manufacturing industry would be an advantage, but not essential.

Location

- Tokyo

Salary

- 13,000,000 yen - 150,000,000 yen

Reference number : 06940-0013066360
