Job Description

You will be responsible for being a consultant to support both clients and candidates. As a consultant in the field for which you are responsible, you will introduce human resources that match the needs of the company, and also provide job information and advice to help job seekers realise their career visions.

Client Details

We are a recruiting firm founded in London, UK, with strengths in providing career change support for foreign and domestic global companies. The Tokyo office is an overseas-like work environment with employees from 35 different countries. We do not divide divisions for efficiency, as many recruiting firms do, but rather provide what we call a "360° model" (two-sided), in which consultants handle communication for both the employer and candidate sides of the recruitment process.

Description

- Candidates search and introduce that match the needs of clients
- Building relationship with clients and expand market by Business Development activity
- Managing the whole cycle of recruitment process for both candidates and clients side
- Market Research of the industry you specialise in

Job Offer

- Competitive salary range
- Clear career path and transparent incentive system
- International environment
- Gaining connections with top tier firms
