Job Description

Our client is looking for a Senior Tax Specialist with deep expertise in tax compliance and a passion for the tech manufacturing sector. In this role, you'll be an essential member of the finance team, driving tax strategy and ensuring regulatory compliance. This is a prime opportunity for a detail-focused professional to grow within a global, innovation-driven company.

Client Details

Our client is a leading American company in advanced technology, specializing in the packaging and testing of electronic components. Operating worldwide, they support key industries like automotive, consumer electronics, and communications. With a collaborative, innovative culture, they offer an exciting environment focused on growth and impactful global projects. This is a great opportunity to be part of a forward-thinking team and contribute to industry-leading advancements.

Description

- Manage tax compliance, including preparation and filing of corporate, consumption, and resident tax returns.
- Oversee transfer pricing documentation and support tax audits.
- Provide guidance on tax reform impacts and coordinate with international teams on tax-related projects.

Job Offer

- Competitive package with biannual bonuses.
- Full social insurance coverage, including health, welfare, and employment benefits.
- Generous allowances for commuting, family, and housing.
- Flexible working system with options for remote work.
- Professional development opportunities, including global training programs and career advancement support.

To apply online please click the 'Apply' button below. For a confidential discussion about this role please contact Francois Yanase.

Required Skills

- Expertise in tax compliance, especially in corporate and consumption taxes.
 - Business-level English proficiency and experience with SAP.
 - Background in a corporate tax role or tax advisory.
