Job Description

We will hold an online information session for bilingual engineers!
It may be difficult to get a sense of how we actually work and the atmosphere of our workplace from job information alone.
To eliminate such concerns, we will hold an information session where you can learn more about what our company has to offer.

Please join us as the first step toward your future career.
This is a great opportunity to hear directly about our actual work, the ease of working, and our workplace culture.

The dates and times are as follows
March 28 (Fri.) 19:00-19:30 Japan time (in English)
