Job Description

The Corporate Planning department is looking for a professional to take on FP&A, management accounting, governance enhancement initiatives, and special projects.

Key Responsibilities:

- Budget planning, performance data aggregation, and variance analysis

- Supporting executive decision-making through scheduling and agenda-setting for management meetings
- Collaborating with other departments to strengthen governance, including the approval process

Why This Role is Exciting

- Be part of building a fast-evolving corporate management framework in response to business growth
- Contribute to business growth while gaining a company-wide perspective in a growing startup
- Engage in one of the world's fastest-growing businesses

Future Outlook

- As the company enters its 7th year, business expansion continues
 - Financial and governance management will evolve alongside company growth

Required SkillsRequired

- Hands-on experience in corporate planning, FP&A, or management accounting
- Ability to adapt to ambiguity and proactively catch up on necessary information
- Business-level Japanese proficiency (JLPT N1 or higher)

Preferred

- Experience in financial management within a listed company or a pre-IPO company
- Experience managing financials in a company operating multiple businesses across different countries or regions
- Knowledge or experience in the manufacturing industry
- English proficiency (ability to handle standard business emails)
- Certifications related to bookkeeping or accounting

Who We're Looking For

- Individuals eager to support business growth through financial management and corporate foundation building
 - Detail-oriented professionals who prioritize both accuracy and efficiency
 - Team players who value collaboration
