Job Description

Join the internal audit team of a leading global financial institution. This position offers broad exposure to business, operational, and regulatory risk areas, with responsibility for planning and executing audits and contributing to governance advancement initiatives. You'll work across core risk areas including IT, AML, market, credit, and data governance-supporting both local and global oversight.

Client Details

Our client is one of Japan's largest financial institutions with a broad international presence. Their Internal Audit division operates independently from risk, compliance, and front-office teams, delivering strategic assurance and contributing to the continuous enhancement of the company's internal control framework.

Description

- Execute audits across trust, banking, and group-wide operations
- Develop and manage audit plans in line with global audit governance
- Collaborate with global affiliates as a regional liaison
- Analyze internal control effectiveness in areas including governance, risk, compliance, AML, credit, IT, and market risk
- Support innovation and methodology upgrades in audit operations

Job Offer

- Opportunity to shape internal audit strategy at group level
- Broad audit exposure across Mizuho Group entities
- Long-term development in one of Japan's most respected financial institutions
