Job Description

An excellent opportunity for an experienced audit professional to join the internal audit team of a globally recognized life insurance provider. The role focuses on auditing sales practices, evaluating control frameworks, and enhancing governance and compliance structures.

Client Details

Our client is a multinational life insurance firm with a strong reputation for ethics, governance, and customer trust. Their internal audit function plays a vital role in supporting enterprise-wide transparency, control, and risk culture.

Description

- Conduct audits aligned with internal methodology and regulatory standards.
- Assess and report on sales governance, control frameworks, and risk exposure.
- Lead and execute audits, document findings, and support remediation planning.
- Participate in macro risk assessments and audit planning activities.

- Serve as project lead on smaller engagements and mentor junior auditors.
- Communicate audit outcomes clearly to stakeholders at various levels.

Job Offer

- Key audit role within a globally trusted insurance institution.
- Hybrid working style and competitive benefits.
- Career advancement and cross-functional collaboration.
- Impactful role contributing to audit maturity and governance.

If this Sales Risk Senior Auditor role aligns with your career aspirations, we encourage you to apply and join our Tokyo team in shaping the future of risk management in the insurance industry.

Required Skills

- Experience in audit or internal control within financial services.
- Team management or project leadership experience.
- Excellent communication, logical writing, and conflict resolution skills.
- Strong understanding of risk, controls, and regulatory expectations.
- Fluent Japanese and business level English skills

Preferred Qualifications:

- CIA, CFE, or similar audit certifications.
- Experience in insurance sales audits or compliance risk review
