Job Description

This role offers the opportunity to specialize in investment risk management across complex financial products, including structured finance, private credit, and global alternative assets. You'll join a leading insurer's Tokyo-based investment risk team, supporting portfolio resilience through expert analysis and risk monitoring.

Client Details

Our client is a major life insurance group with long-standing presence in Japan and global integration. The Tokyo team manages risk exposure across high-value investment classes, helping ensure the firm's long-term asset health and compliance.

Description

- Oversee investment risk exposure across structured finance, securitized assets, project finance, private credit, and real estate-backed loans
- Conduct creditworthiness evaluations of investment counterparties
- Collaborate with investment and actuarial teams to deliver strategic risk insights
- Generate internal reports and risk assessments aligned with regulatory and internal standards

Job Offer

- 20+ annual leave days with an 85% average usage rate
- Unique "stock leave" system for life events or emergencies
- Career growth via overseas study programs, internal mobility, and full certification support
- Employee perks: birthday gifts, family-friendly events, and cultural activities
- Health-focused: cancer awareness initiatives and company-funded check-ups
