Job Description

Join a Tokyo-based internal audit team overseeing audits across a global investment management platform. This position offers a dynamic and low-travel opportunity to lead and execute internal audits across business units, with no SOX-related work and strong support for long-term professional development. The firm provides a competitive salary, performance bonuses, and a market-leading benefits program.

Client Details

Our client is a global financial services organization with a focus on investment management, private equity, and asset servicing. The internal audit function is a trusted partner to business leaders, ensuring sound governance, operational efficiency, and risk transparency across all lines of business.

Description

- Plan and perform risk-based internal audit engagements across business areas
- Identify operational, financial, and compliance risks through interviews, testing, and analysis
- Evaluate the effectiveness of internal controls and provide value-added recommendations
- Prepare and present clear, concise audit reports to management
- Collaborate with stakeholders to understand complex business processes and drive control improvements

- Work closely with team members across Tokyo and global offices

Job Offer

- Low travel audit environment with no SOX work
- Opportunity to grow within a global investment platform
- Competitive salary, bonus structure, and industry-leading benefits
