Job Description

Join the tech department, an award-winning skill evaluation and training platform aimed at transforming Japan's hiring culture. We're scaling our platform, building new features, and modernizing the user experience — and we want passionate backend engineers to be part of this journey.

Required Skills

- 3+ years of backend development experience in a JVM-based language (Scala, Kotlin, Java)
- Experience with REST APIs and distributed systems
- Familiarity with asynchronous programming (Futures, Akka, Typelevel/IO)
- Understanding of functional programming
- Proficiency in relational databases
- Experience with automated testing
- Experience with cloud services (AWS/GCP/Azure)

- Business-level English proficiency
