募集要項

UWC ISAK Japan is Japan's first fully residential international high school, established in 2014 with the aim of developing leaders who will make a positive impact on the world. In 2017, it became a United World College, of which there are now 18 around the world.

Our students come from 80 different countries, and we provide scholarships to 70% of them to create an environment that is uniquely diverse, in many different ways. UWC ISAK Japan is always filled with the energy of faculty, staff, students, and parents who resonate with the school's mission. Each member working here actively contributes to the development of the school by leveraging their own strengths and special qualities.

Expected Service Overview Summary:

The Fundraising Officer will actively engage in fundraising and related activities. The main aim is to keep positive relationships with all existing donors, explore new fundraising opportunities, and acquire new donors. The position can be based on campus or remotely and will involve liaising closely with the Fundraising Manager based in Tokyo. This is an exciting role in a well functioning and highly motivated Advancement Team that is growing in size and capacity.

Scope of Services:

1) Fundraising Activities

- Join discussions for fundraising activities and proactively support new initiatives and fundraising campaigns by the Development Team;
- Work with the Fundraising Officer in approaches to existing donors and new donors (individuals and corporate);
- Explore new fundraising opportunities for High School programs and Short Course programs (Summer and Winter Schools);
- Help to set fundraising targets for the year, help strategize how to reach these, and then participate in reaching these goals;
- Take on and steward agreed donor partnerships, with a view to deepening these donor relations;
- Become knowledgeable about current students and alumni, and gather intriguing stories of the community which could be presented to prospective donors and others, all the while liaising closely with the Alumni and Community Engagement Officer;
- Understand and help to communicate the significance of the fundraising program for Financial Assistance in the School;
- Answer phone inquiries about fundraising.

2) Relationship Management

- Understand the school's donor base and provide the necessary activities/support to keep up positive relationships with them;
- Preparation for donor events on campus and off campus, including setting up the site, meal/drink arrangements, and others required;
- Assist student selection for each event when necessary (choose appropriate students who can join the events and speak with the donors);
- Become familiar with the scholarship students who participate in the students/donors matching program and other programs set up by UWC International Office (Dare to Dream program), have them write regular reports to their sponsors and, when necessary, set up in-person meetings for the donors to meet the matched students;
- Assist in creating content (get student stories) and sending out newsletters, SNS, and email campaigns;
- Assist the Accounting Office with donor-related matters (payment requests, receipts, etc.).

3) Database Management

- Updating donor information regularly;
- Report creating.

4) Other duties

- Other duties may be assigned from time to time by the Head of External Relations, Head of School, or the Chair of the Board.
