募集要項

As an IT Consultant with us, you'll be a key player in the implementation lifecycle, contributing to discovery, configuration, testing, deployment, and post-go-live support. Collaborating closely with the Project Manager, you'll gather customer requirements, configure our cutting-edge solution, manage expectations, offer guidance, and contribute to our internal initiatives.

Client Details

Our Client is a frontrunner in revolutionizing HR and Payroll IT solutions, committed to shaping the future of workforce management. Join us to redefine the way businesses manage their human capital.

Description

- Document and validate customer business requirements, aligning them with our solution's functionality.
- Configure our application to precisely meet customer's documented needs.
- Lead engaging consulting sessions and maintain comprehensive documentation.
- Offer ongoing support, acting as a resource for internal and external stakeholders.
- Play a pivotal role in internal initiatives and contribute to our solutions repository.
- Participate actively in Continuing Education sessions and new release training.

Job Offer

- Opportunity to work on cutting-edge projects.
- Collaborative and innovative work environment.
- Continuous learning and development opportunities.
- Chance to reshape the industry's future and create a lasting impact.
- Flexibility including travel to customer sites.
