This role is critical in ensuring the company's industrial and manufacturing activities are conducted within the legal tax framework.

Client Details

This company is a leading manufacturer in the commercial vehicle industry, specializing in the production of trucks and buses. With a strong focus on innovation and quality, they provide a wide range of reliable and efficient vehicles designed to meet the diverse needs of businesses globally. The company is committed to sustainability and the development of advanced technologies, including electric and hybrid models, to reduce environmental impact. Their extensive network ensures robust customer support and service, making them a trusted partner in the commercial transportation sector.

Description

- Oversee and manage all tax operations within the company.
- Ensure the company's compliance with all tax laws and regulations.
- Plan and implement effective tax strategies to optimize tax obligations.
- Prepare and review tax calculations, estimates, and reports.

- Communicate tax strategies and implications to senior management effectively.
- Collaborate with external auditors and tax consultants.
- Manage tax provisions and tax compliance process.
- Advise management on the impact of new tax laws.

Job Offer

- Competitive salary
- An attractive bonus package.
- Opportunities for professional growth within the industrial and manufacturing sector.
- A supportive, team-oriented work culture.
- A chance to play a pivotal role in a large organization's accounting and finance department.
