募集要項

Join the team as a Network/Server Design and Operations Specialist. Utilize your expertise in server virtualization (VMware) and network troubleshooting to build and maintain our IT infrastructure, collaborating with international teams.

Client Details

Unlock your potential at our innovative financial company, where IT and marketing are essential for business success. Contribute to our growth while working closely with our German headquarters and experiencing firsthand how technology drives our business.

Description

- Manage and maintain server virtualization technology (VMware) to ensure stability and efficiency.
- Drive network configuration, monitoring, and troubleshooting for seamless operations.
- Collaborate with internal departments and external vendors as the primary contact for system development and maintenance.
- Lead projects and ensure successful implementation of IT initiatives.
- Stay updated on emerging technologies and propose innovative solutions

Job Offer

- Competitive annual income up to 12 million yen (including bonuses).
- Retirement allowance, commuting allowance, and flexible working hours.
- Comprehensive social insurance coverage and various welfare programs.
- Training opportunities for IT skills and personal development.
